

From Mom And Dad

Birthday Girl Vritika Sharma
Story Book

It's May 1st and it's Vritika Sharma's birthday. She was so happy to get so many gifts. Vritika got a "fairy snow globe" as a gift, and she was surprised to see the fairy in it because she looked so real.

She was a fairy from Fairyland and she came to Vritika for help. The other fairy in the "snow globe" was trapped by an evil magician. The only way to set her free was to collect three magical keys from the fairyland.

I am a fairy from fairyland and I need your help.

I will help since my Mom And Dad told me to always help others.

Fairy Land

The fairy took Vritika Sharma to fairyland. But the fairy can't enter it because of the spell of the evil magician. So Vritika Sharma has to get the keys by herself. The fairy told her whom to meet. But they might test her before giving her the keys since only a mighty person can get the magical keys.

First, she met a bunny holding two eggs in his hand. One egg was empty from the inside and the other was filled with chocolate. Mr. Bunny asked her to find the empty egg without touching them.

Tell which one is empty from inside

Vritika Sharma put both eggs in water. The egg filled with chocolate was heavy, so it drowned, and the other egg, which was empty, was so light that it started floating in the water. This is how Vritika solved this problem and got her first key.

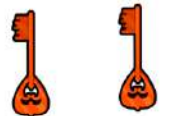

Then Vritika Sharma went to Mr. King rat. He was the king of all the rats in the fairyland. He was playing with his queen. Vritika politely asked him for the magical key. He took Vritika next to his new car and asked her a question.

Hello,
Mr. King Rat can I get the Magical Key

What are the names of these colors and what does each color on the traffic light mean? This was easy for Vritika since her parents, had already taught her. Vritika said the first color is red, which means stop, the second is yellow, which means wait, and the last is green, which means go.

Next, Vritika Sharma met Miss Doe who had the last magical key. The car was broken and it got stuck in the middle of the way. If Vritika Sharma could find a solution, she could get her last magical key.

Vritika got an idea. she got a lot of flying balloons and gave them to Miss Doe. Miss Doe starts flying with the balloons. Now she can reach her destination without any delay. Miss Doe was so happy that she gave the last magical key to Vritika Sharma.

Vritika Sharma got all three magical keys because she was intelligent, knowledgeable, and helpful. They returned to Vritika's room and, using those magical keys, the evil magician's spell was broken and the trapped fairy got free. They thanked Vritika and flew to fairyland. This was Vritika Sharma's best birthday till now.

Thank you.
Vritika,
for freeing me
&
Happy Birthday
